

Date: October 28, 2016
To: TRIM[®] METALWORKING FLUID CUSTOMERS AND DISTRIBUTORS
Subject: DISCONTINUED PRODUCT

It is important as we add new and innovative products that we also remove older, lower-performing products. There are many benefits to rationalization including, freeing up valuable resources, improving operational flexibility, simplifying supply chain management, and improving the quality of our product offering.

Effective, Tuesday, November 1, 2016

The following product will be discontinued: TRIM[®] E190

Suggested Alternatives: TRIM[®] MicroSol[®] 690XT, TRIM[®] E850

Thank you for your trust and confidence in Master Chemical's TRIM[®] brand metalworking fluids. Please feel free to contact your local Master Chemical representative or either of the undersigned should you have questions or concerns.
